

Federally Endangered, Threatened, Proposed, and Candidate Species in Ohio

July 2, 2002

*Public Utilities Commission of Ohio
March, 2004*

- |   |                                      |   |   |   |   |
|---|--------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|
|  | Bald Eagle - Threatened              |  | Clubshell Mussel - Endangered               |  | American Burying Beetle - Endangered        |
|  | Indiana Bat - Endangered             |  | Fanshell Mussel - Endangered                |  | Eastern Prairie Fringed Orchid - Threatened |
|  | Piping Plover - Endangered           |  | Northern Riffleshell Mussel - Endangered    |  | Lakeside Daisy - Threatened                 |
|  | Copperbelly Water Snake - Threatened |  | Pink Mucket Pearly Mussel - Endangered      |  | Northern Monkshood - Threatened             |
|  | Eastern Massasauga - Candidate/PC*   |  | Purple Cat's Paw Pearly Mussel - Endangered |  | Running Buffalo Clover - Endangered         |
|  | Lake Erie Water Snake - Threatened   |  | White Cat's Paw Pearly Mussel - Endangered  |  | Small Whorled Pogonia - Threatened          |
|  | Timber Rattlesnake - PC*             |  | Scioto Madtom - Endangered                  |  | Virginia Spiraea - Threatened               |
|   |                                      |   |   |  | Karner Blue - Endangered                    |
|   |                                      |   |   |  | Mitchell's Satyr - Endangered               |

Note: PC* indicates that a Federal pre-listing conservation plan exists or is being developed